MEANING & DEFINITION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

- Human rights are moral principles or norms for certain standards of human behaviour and are regularly protected in municipal and international law.
- Human Rights the basic rights and freedoms that belong to every person in the world from birth until death.
- These basic rights are based on shared values like dignity, fairness, equality, respect and independence.
- Dr. Subhash C. Kashyap, "Human rights may be said to be those fundamental rights to which every man or woman inhabiting any part of the world should be deemed entitled merely by virtue of having been born a human being".
